Worship Service Information

Today is Christ the King Sunday. We observe Christ the King on the last Sunday after Pentecost, which is also the last Sunday of the Christian year and the Sunday before the new year begins with Advent. Traditionally, Christ the King is set aside as a celebration of the coming reign of Jesus Christ and the completion of creation. The liturgical color for the day is white.

The Christ Candle burns today in honor of the eternal reign of Christ.

The flowers on the altar are placed by John Copp in honor of his wife, Judy Copp.

Lectionary Text for December 2nd

Jeremiah 33:14-16 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13
Psalm 25:1-10 Luke 21:25-36

The lectionary is a three-year cycle of selected collections of suggested scriptural readings from the Bible that can be used for worship, study or other theological uses. The readings for each Sunday provide a systematic approach to the use of scripture in worship.
