Worship Service Information

Today is Christ the King Sunday. We observe Christ the King on the last Sunday after Pentecost, which is also the last Sunday of the Christian year and the Sunday before the new year begins with Advent. Traditionally, Christ the King is set aside as a celebration of the coming reign of Jesus Christ and the completion of creation. The liturgical color for the day is white.

The Worship Center, located in the Narthex, contains items that may be of use to you during our worship services. These include hearing devices, large print bulletins and hymnals, and children’s worship bags. Please return all items after use.

News and Events

Welcome to Our Church—Please take a moment to sign the red attendance registration pads. Also, please join us in Bailey Hall following the 10:00 am worship service for a time of fellowship. Children’s Church is offered upstairs for children ages three—3rd grade following the Children’s Gathering at 10:00 am. A nursery and quiet room are available during both worship services. If you are visiting with us today, please pick-up a visitor booklet in the lobby.

Altar Flowers—The flowers placed on the altar last Sunday, November 17th were given in honor of the 60th wedding anniversary of Herb and Joan McKenzie. The flowers were also in honor of the 68th wedding anniversary of John and Marge Nelson.

Churchwide Christmas Dinner—Please join us for a Christmas dinner on Wednesday, December 4th at 5:45 pm. The menu will be pork roast with an apple sage sauce, long grain wild rice, haricot verts, green salad, rolls, and dessert. The kid’s menu will be pizza bites and fresh fruit. Following dinner, we will sing our favorite Christmas carols. The cost for dinner is $10 per person. If you are able, bring an unwrapped gift for a child. Reservations are a must by calling or emailing the church, using the sign-up sheets, or through www.siumc.org/wnd.

Navigating the Holidays After Loss—Those who have experienced loss are encouraged to attend a workshop on Thursday, December 5th at 5:00 pm. This workshop will be led by Rev. Holland Morgan, a United Methodist pastor and recently retired grief counselor with Hospice.

Understanding Advent—Pastor Hale will lead a special session on Sunday, December 8th at 11:15 am in the Giddens Chapel where we will discuss the meaning and significance of Advent and the other liturgical seasons of the church year.

Appalachian Winter Cantata—Join us on December 8th at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary for our Christmas cantata. This cantata combines traditional sounds with more rustic elements creating a blend that is fresh and pleasing. Sacred Harp tunes are re-tooled for Advent and stand alongside new versions of Shaker hymns and Appalachian melodies. Thoughtful narration will weave the movements together in a meaningful tapestry of song and Scripture. Nursery will be available.

Ladies Book Club—December’s book is the “Same Kind of Different as Me” and is about a modern-day slave, an international art dealer, and the unlikely woman who bound the two together. The book club will meet at the church at 11:00 am on Wednesday, Dec. 11th to carpool to Cohen’s Retreat where they will discuss and enjoy lunch.

Cookies, Cocoa and Christmas Crafts—Families are invited to an afternoon of holiday fun on Sunday, December 15th from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm. This will be an opportunity for parents and children to make Christmas crafts and ornaments together, and of course enjoy cocoa and cookies too! There will be crafts for preschool to elementary ages.
